VOL. 10, NO. 232 MONESSEN, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1912 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

MAN THINLY CLAD, FAR FROM HOME

Clad only in a pair of light summer pants and a flimsy undershirt, George Sutti, a Slav about 30 years old, who lives on Morgan avenue, was found this morning around 8 o'clock about 100 yards north of the West Monessen depot on the P. V. and C. His feet were bare and showed marks of bruises and cuts. He was discovered by railroad detective J. A. Henderson of the P. V. and C., who notified the local police that a man had been found, and it is thought he was from this place.

The patrol brought him back and on being interviewed by an interpreter as to the reason for his actions he said "he had been sleeping on snakes all night and tried to get away from them by running across the bridge." The man was thought to be temporarily deranged and it is stated, that he is to be sent to the hospital for treatment.

YOUNG EVANGELISTS CREATING INTEREST

At the Presbyterian church last night the meeting was filled with that ferver which indicates that men are interested in the better things of life. After an effective song service, Evangelist Houck preached from the text; "He brought me up out of an horrible pit." The sermon was listened to with intense interest. Mr. Houch is one of the most entertaining and instructive speakers that has appeared before a Monessen audience. His sermons are spiced with vivid illustrations taken from a wide experience in life. He does not mince words, but preaches the old gospel straight. He declared that "an unsaved man was the most desolate creature on earth." He gave as his reasons "that such men were already condemned, that they were beyond all human help and that God cannot save a man who refuses to be saved. God cannot save a man against the human will," cried the evangelist.

So convincing were his words that when an invitation was given for men to come clean and square for Christ, many responded to the invitation. The after-meetings which are held, prove one of the most interesting parts of the service.

The meetings for prayer and bible reading, held each evening at seven o'clock in the men's class room, was well attended. The after-noon prayer meetings were directed by Mr. Porter and Rev. J. H. Rodgers. The Thursday's prayer-meetings will be dispensed with and instead of meeting at the homes, there will be a general rally at the church at 2 o'clock. The Friday prayer-meetings as announced by the committee will be as follows: Mrs. John Shirley, 663, Reed avenue, Mrs. R. S. Kelly, 356, Donner avenue, by Pete Porter, and Mrs. J. E. Cook, 236 Schoonmaker avenue. A noon-day prayer-meeting will be held at the foundry Thursday. These meetings are for the good of the public and all are earnestly invited to participate in them.

The public is being largely attracted by this series of services and the church auditorium s filled each nigth. In fact many have expressed their belief that this is really the best evangelistic meeting ever held in Monessen. Revs. MacDonald and Rodgers are working earnestly and faihfully and both of the young evangelists—Houck and Porter are, to use a rather slangy phrase, "delivering the goods." A most cordial invitation is extended to all to attend, especially the evening services.

MOVED!

I wish to inform my old customers and all that are contemplating becoming customers, (Here's hoping they are legions) that I have moved my sample room from 564 Donner avenue to 403 Donner Avenue. Come in fellows and look them over. bring your wives and your hope to be wives along with you.

Grand Opening of Woolworth 5 & 10c Store

The formal opening of the new and elegant Five and Ten Cent store of the F. W. Woolworh Co., will take place on Friday, March 8th. This day will be set apart wholly for visiting and inspection and the hours will be from 2 until 5 and 7 to 9, during which there will be enchanting music and courteous attendants.

At 8 o'clock Saturday morning the store will be open for business and a capable corps of clerks will be provided to wait on everybody.

As everyone knows, the Woolworth "5 and 10" has been one of Monessen's most substantial business institutions for about seven years, the old store being in the Cramer building on Donner avenue near the Meyers clothing store.

The business grew rapidly and at last it was evident that new and larger quarters were needed, hence arrangements were made with Newcomer & Wolf for the erection of the new home on ground adjoining the Jones block, formerly the May hotel. This room is 40x100 feet and affords ample floor space to handle the large trade enjoyed by this popular store.

C. B. Woodworth, the present local manager has been here about two years, and through his energy, capable and careful management and generally pleasing and affable manner, the business has continued to grow to its present gratifying proportions.

During the removal and fitting up of the new store, Manager Woodworth is being ably assisted and advised by Superintendent of stores, Mr. A. A. Hughes, who has charge of the Pittsburgh district.

The Monessen store is one of a string of 610 stores operated by the F. W. Woolworth Co., located all over the United States. It is numbered among what is known as "the new corporation," launched with the recent taking-over of other corporations in the same line, such as the Knox, Kirby, and others, which makes the Woolworth by all odds the strongest chain of stories in this country operated under one management, for the distribution of popular priced and reliable merchandise.

Outside large cities, the Monessen store is among the largest, best and most completely equipped of the entire chain, and the present seeking of larger quarters at once signifies that, as a financial success, it is most encouraging to its promoters.

The grand opening Friday will be one of the most interesting of the spring season, and the management extends a most cordial invitation to all in Monessen and surrounding neighborhood to be present.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED

A. L. Keister, of Scottdale, has officially announced with the county organization for Congress in this district. Mr. Keister has been referred to previouly in this paper. He will start at once on an active campaign. 1t

Do you use Hydrogen Peroxide?

The American market is flooded with different makes of Hydrogen Peroxide, sold at all sorts of prices The Parke, Davis & Co. brand has been proved to be 30 per cent stronger than others on the market today. At the end of nine months it loses in strength only .06 per cent. The others lose from 1 to 64 40 per cent It certainly does not benefit a man who purchases Peroxide at a low price, for he has little more than ordinary water in the bottle after the lapse of three or four months. We have on our shelves some cheap stuff, and then we have the best—Parke, Davis & Co.'s.

Ropes Tightening Around Night Hawks

The crusade against evil in this town is becoming stronger and stronger every day and every possible method is being taken in routing out the evil and evil influences from the paths of the innocent ones. There is danger lurking everwhere and to a young boy or girl it seems more like adventure than anyhing else, and causes them to forget all else and become engulfed in the vortex of the so called "delights" or "worldly pleasures."

Within the last week many complaints have been heard from all sides concerning the actions of some of the young boys and girls who make a practice of walking the streets until a late hour of the night with no definite destination in view. Matters have come to a head in the last few days and the police are now acting under orders from the Burgess, to question closely any persons seen loitering around the streets in an aimless manner and if a satisfactory explanation of their conduct cannot be given, to arrest them and an inquiry will be made into their actions at a hearing.

A short time ago Burgess Reamer was in receipt of several complaints from parents and guardians who wanted to know how they could make their children keep better hours. The Burgess, according to an act of the Legislature has the power to send incorrigible children to Morganza or the Reform school, and while in conversation with a reporter of the Daily the other day, he said, "that rather than have the streets full of this element, no matter who it was, drastic measures would be taken and he would exercise his power to the extent of sending several of the worst offenders to the aforementioned places for a short sentence."

Several arrests have been made since the orders of the Burgess were issued and after that offenders were given a good lecturing and were released on parole, and the cases against them will be dropped providing their actions in the future warrant such a movement.

Corner loafing is also to receive a black eye and from now on the crowded corners will be a thing of the past and pedestrians will have no trouble in making their way along the crowded streets, a feature that has not been experiened by them for quite a long time.

FINE NEW THEATRE BY MONESSEN MEN

Donora is to have a new, up-to-date, ground floor vaudeville and moving picture theatre with seating capacity of six hundred, and it will be built with Monessen capital, viz: Tom B. Cowan, R. E. Shibler and George Moore, all of whom our people known as being associated with the Bijou theatre. Plans are already well under way and work will be commenced in a few weeks. The new theatre will have one of the best locations, right in the central section of the busiest business street of Donora, McKean avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, in the same square with the Irondale hotel. The company is known as the Ideal Photo Play Co., and this will be among the finest vaudeville and picture houses in the Monongahela valley.

Butler Rallies To Mr. Robbins

Northern Part of the Twenty-Second Congressional District Strongly Favors Westmoreland Attorney for Congress

The leading Republicans in Butler county are strongly in favor of Col. Edward E. Robbins, of Westmoreland county, as the Republican nominee for congress from his district. Butler county fully appreciates the unselfish manner in which Col. Robbins stepped aside to allow that county a chance two years ago when J. David McJunkin was the candidate. From all indications the Westmoreland man will be handsomely taken care of in the neighboring county.

In his own county, Col. Robbins' candidacy is meeting with approval all along the line. The real recommendation that Col. Robbins has to offer is his fitness for the place Equipped mentally to take his place in the national legislative halls and with a training and achievements in his chosen profession that few have been able to attain, Col. Robbins will be a credit to this district if sent to Washington as its representative. 1t

BRIGHT OUT-LOOK FOR ASSOCIATION

For some time a committee of citizens selected from the Federated Bible Class has been working on the plan of giving Monessen, at some early date, a Young Men's Association. This is a movement that reflects a great deal of credit on the promoters, as at the present time we have a great need for just such an organization.

There are large numbers of boys who roam around the streets in the evenings who would be only too gald to have a nice warm reading room to go to or a well equipped gymnasium in which to spend a few leisure moments. The committee has taken all these things into consideration in their plans and have now reached the point where they are casting around in an effort to locate suitable quarters. Up to the present time, and this does not include more than a small portion of the citizens approached, there has been guaranteed over $2,500. It is said that within a short time a campaign similar to the one recently conducted in Pittsburgh will be carried on and efforts made to increase this sum to $10,000, if possible. Every public spirited citizen should put his shoulder to the wheel in this movement and boost it in every possible manner.

The committee in charge of the work that has been done so far is as follows: G. H. Thomas, E. C. Sattley, J. C. F. Motz, J. E. Pittman, J. M. Beall, Professor H E. Gress, Rev. A. T. Wallace, H. L. Saum, Simon Mouer and George Wheatley.

Allegheny County in Line

The crusade against club side-boards or bars goes on and on, and every indication is that it will not be long until the desired good will have been accomplished. Monday in the Allegheny county court at Pittsburgh, District Attorney Blakeley followed the same ruling as that issued recently at Greensburg by Judge Doty. About forty constables reported and were sworn, and the District Attorney cited the many violations of the liquor law which had come to his notice. In part he said: "In the city and throughout the county there are a great many instances under the guise of clubs. It seems to me that it is the actual duty of constables to go into these places, whether chartered or not, and find out whether the law is obeyed or otherwise." He advocated monthly reports to the court, and asked Judge Frazer to instruct constables explicitly on the laws of 1856, as well as the act of 1887, which was done, and the judge remarked: "Unless you are diligent in your investigations of illegal liquor selling in your districts, you may have an information made against you and you will be fined and sent to prison. It is your duty to visit places where liquor is being sold every month." It was stated that admission was frequently refused by club managers. "In that case," said the judge, "make a report to the court and we will see that you do get in." In Snowdon township the constable reported no violations—only two clubs, the Moose, and St. Barnabas—but no violations. On being questioned he at last admitted the existence of "The Old Men's Club" and "The Young Men's Club," where liquor was dispensed every day of the week, to boys and anyone who asked for it. Constable Fisher was severely censured, the court refused to accept his report and ordered him to make further investigation and secure the names of the persons connected with the two clubs.

A Curb on Street Faking

A few days ago one of New Kensington's councilmen at a meeting made a statement boldly and fearlessly that, in his opinion, that town should legislate, absolutely, against the "faker," and we are led to the conclusion that it's a real good idea, and that all right-thinking people of every town would be in favor of it, particularly in Monessen. The idea, in substance, is, that no person should be given a license to sell on the public streets on a pay day, as is custom, any article or articles which conflict or come in competition with the goods sold by any of our local or home merchants, and we believe it is a sensible, sane and practical way to view the matter. Such people do not usually offer dependable goods, for they have no other object in view but to get all the easy money they can in as short a time as possible and get out of the town to apply their wiles on the unsuspecting elsewhere. The practice, almost as a whole, is a swindle, and it is not essential that any town, cater for their trade. The few paltry dollors they pay into our borough treasury does not begin to make up for the injury wrough in a commercial sense. Do you think they do? Spring is coming—warm days and evenings will soon take the place of the cold, and now is exactly the time for this matter to be given thought and action. Let steps be taken to place the ban on this sort of trafficing by placing such a prohibitory license thereon that none can see any advantage in squatting and unpacking their grips. Our merchants will be better off, we'll be rid of their hideous and boisterous yelling and the town will take on an air of dignity of which she could not heretofore boast.

It is said that Sunday dancing has been introduced and is really a fad in Washington City. Sunday base ball is bad enough, but this is worse, and it is no credit to us as a free, progressive and christian country that such is the case. Like the crusade against the objectionable club sideboard, public sentiment should become so united and forceful as to put an end to both of these desecrations.

The best way to secure good municipal government is to persuade and convince the voters that it's really much cheaper than inefficient administration.

The word "amblance" on the city patrol wagon seems to have no special significance. A word spelled wrongly is easily corrected in the newspaper columns for the mistake can be attributed to the "typographical error," but on a city patrol the word should be spelled correctly or erafed entirly. This is a matter the police department or council should look to at once.

Appropriation for the Yough

The recent rivers and harbors bill that was sent to the House carried with it an appropriation of $75,000 for the canalization of the Yough river. This brings the total sum available up to $200,000 and work is expected to begin on the first dam at Elrod within a very few weeks. Congress authorized an appropriation of $1,050,000 for the slack watering of the river and about $10,000 of this has already been spent in surveys. A great deal of the credit for this movement is due the West Newton Board of Trade and Col. E. E. Robbins of Greensburg who brought the project before Congress during his term of office over twelve years ago.

PHIL BRENNER TO HAVE AUCTION SALE

The entire jewelry stock of Phil Brenner, is to be offered at auction, beginning tomorrow. Mr. Brenner has planned some extensive improvements for the interior of his building, and he desires to dispose of as much of the stock before work starts as possible and with this point in view he has engaged the services of W. H. Brokaw an experienced auctioneer from New York city, and tomorrow the sale will start. Local people are acquainted with the kind of a jewelry stock Mr. Brenner carries and they are also acquainted with the business methods of the firm and those who attend the sale can be assured of some substantial bargains. Nothing will be reserved and the articles will be sold at what they bring under the hammer. Customers may walk into the store at any time, look around and if an article is found you would like to have, ask to have it offered. Elsewhere in this issue is an announcement of the sale which will be continued from day to day until stock is reduced satisfactorily.

Gets a Salty Sentence

John Bayus of Daisytown near California, was on Monday sentenced by Judge McIlvaine at Washington, to pay the costs, a fine of $500 and to undergo imprisonment in the county jail five months, he having been convicted on a charge of selling liquor to minors and on Sunday without the proper credentials. All sorts of pleas were made to show Bayus an innocent and much abused man, but the judge remarked that it appeared to him to be just another scheme to evade the law in shipping liquor into that county.

Monessen Egg Story

Monessen has an egg story, even if she isn't so situated as to produce a real live, large juicy snake yarn. Charles Fleming of 145 Schoonmaker avenue owns a brown leghorn hen, one year old, which on February 28th laid an egg, the size of which was 6 inches in diameter and 7⅞ inches in circumference, and the weight was 3¼ ounces. The hen weighs 8¾ pounds. This seems to be quite an egg, but if any of our readers can beat it, please come forward.

For fourteen years Dickens made Broadstairs his principal summer home in England. London alone held a superior place in his affections. He felt his powers at their amplest when he was at the little channel coast town. Dickens has given the best picture of himself at his summer routine in Broadstairs: "In a bay window in a one-pair sits, from 9 o'clock to 1, a gentleman with rather long hair and no neckcloth, who writes and grins, as if he thought he were very funny indeed. At 1 he disappears, presently emerges from a bathing machine, and may be seen, a kind of salmon colored porpoise, splashing about in the ocean.

"After that he may be viewed in another bay window on the ground floor, eating a strong lunch; and after that, walking a dozen miles or so, or lying on his back in the sand reading a book. Nobody bothers him unless they know he is disposed to be talked to; and I am told he is very comfortable, indeed. He's as brown as a berry, and they do say is a small fortune to the innkeeper who sells beer and cold punch. But this is mere rumor.

"Sometimes he goes up to London (eighty miles or so away), and then, I'm told, there is a sound in Lincoln's Inn Fields at night as of men laughing, together with a clinking of knives and forks and wine glasses."

To Remove Tar.

To remove tar from clothes, rub butter or lard over the tar spots, then wash with soap and water. Apply oil of turpentine and let remain for one hour, then wash again and the tar will be removed. To remove tar from the hands, rub with outside of fresh orange or lemon peel, and wipe dry immediately.

Facts And Fiction

Experiences of Monessen Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Monessen is true. Read it and compare evidence from Monessen people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Monessen will endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, 452 McKee avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I think that the change of drinking water when I moved here was the cause of my kidney trouble. The kidney secretions became irregular in passage and caused me annoyance. I was subject to dizzy spells, could not sleep well and was very nervous. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from the Hirsch Drug Co. and commenced their use. They have greatly helped me and have lived up to all the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

His Sign Said So.

One evening at 7 o'clock a man with a wife and 11 children, many of them grown up, appeared at the entrance to an entertainment hall, bought two tickets and demanded that the entire family should be admitted.

The doorkeeper declined to admit the family with two tickets only.

"But all these are my children," said the man.

"Of course," said the doorkeeper; "but some of them are too old to be admitted free."

"Too old? What's that to do with it? Don't it say on your bills that children under 12 are admitted free with parents?"

"Yes."

"Well, I've only got 11 children, and if 11 children aren't under 12 I'm beat."—Everybody's Weekly.

Among the Theatres

THE OLYMPIC

A new interesting program is being offered to the patrons of the Olympic theatre today. "The Lie," a story of the Civil War in which a Federal officer discovers that a fugitive Rebel whom he has tracked for some distance has taken refuge at the home of his fiancee. The Federal by a lie, connives for the wounded man's escape. "Jealous Julia" a side splitting comedy. "Kelly—from the U. S. A." a comic story in which Kelly blesses old glory and is delighted to get back to America once more and "The Cattlemen's War" a stirring western picture of great merit.

TOMORROW

"The Temptations of A Greater City," one of the most thrilling pictures you will ever find in your power to see. "As ye sow, so also shall ye reap," a well known extract from the bible which is shown in this wonderful picture by examples. An object lesson to the youths and a subject that is a guide post to turn from the trap infested road of youth. 1t

THE BIJOU

"When Memory Calls," at the Bijou today. A pathetic drama by the Selig Co., in which a side of human life is uncovered that is of intense heart interest and which tells a story that is thrilling in every way. There is such a thing as "Phantom Love," according to some people, and if you wish to see an interesting story on this subject, you can do so by spending an hour with us in our cozy theatre. Always three of the best reels of pictures daily and good music. 1t

As an extra attraction we have secured a special orchestra of four pieces; piano, violin, saxaphone and drums and our past reputation in catering to the public and our experience of several years will enable you to come here and have every comfort and convenience that can be afforded and in addition see only the best moral and high class moving pictures. Remember the Bijou. 1t

THE LIBERTY

Where? The Liberty. When? Tomorrow. What? "East Lynne" in two reels.

Don't fail to see "East Lynne" at the Liberty on Thursday. A splendid drama in two reels. 31-2t

Special at the Liberty on Thursday, "East Lynne," the great emotional drama in two reels. 31-2t

Loses Great Toe at Mill

George Kostochen of 531 Schoonmaker avenue, who a few days ago had one great toe cut off while at work at the Pittsburgh Steel mill is getting along reasonably well. Kostochen is one of the men released from the Greensburg jail last week on bail, he having been among those arrested on suspicion for the stabbing and killing of Mike Nemichek at a christening Sunday February 4th. Kostochen is an exceptionally quiet and peaceable foreigner and as many thought he was held unjustly on the charge a strong effort was made to procure his release on bail until the case comes before the grand jury. He came home to his wife and two babies and only worked two or three days at the mill when the accident happened by which he lost a part of one foot.

MOTHER WAS WORRIED

Because Young Daughter Coughed So Much—What She Did

Just think how anxious Mrs. William Archer, of Long Branch, N. J., must have been about her 14-year-old daughter. She says: "She was very thin, had a bad cough, was nervous and did not sleep well. Vinol has helped her wonderfully. She can sleep all night now without coughing once, in fact her cough is gone. Her appetite is greatly improved and she has gained weight. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."

Nothing can possibly be more important than the health of children and that is why we earnestly advise the use of Vinol in all cases where a child is weak, pale, run down, has a cough, or poor appetite. We have seen it make so many children strong and rosy that we believe in it.

Children take Vinol eagerly because it tastes good and it puts new strength into their little bodies. We guarantee Vinol to give perfect satisfaction and give back your money if it does not. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen, Pa.
